Description:

What's up? So, I see that you stumbled upon this textual data about someone… Well, he got a name though. It's not all over the place but most people know him goes by the one syllable from his full name. The 'gin' from Amerogin. Gin was born on the May 12 of 2003 from the married couple, Gina Kamid (known before as Gina Operiano, her maiden name) and Rommel Apilado Kamid. He was their first child.

He was raised in a not so wealthy family, where his father, Rommel, was the only one who made money from driving a tricycle. He was the main source of sustenance and survival for living. And 5 years after Gin, Rommel Junior was born, and Eugene also followed afterwards with 2 years gap from Rommel Junior. Gin once wished for a brother, but they gave him one after one. He said that he couldn't even believe that wishes would last that far.

(Author's Note: Hello, I'll just hang the textual data here for now. I can't really assure you if I'll continue to write everything about him and all the events of his life. But I would love to tell his story. It's just that, writing seems a little bit overwhelming for now. So, uhm, I'll just, for now, take accounts of all and show you the important things you must know all about him.)
